Cat and Mouse are two curious friends who love to explore. One day, they decide to venture into an old, abandoned house on the edge of town. Little do they know that this house is haunted by something sinister.

As Cat and Mouse explore the house, they encounter all sorts of spooky surprises. They hear strange noises, see ghostly figures, and feel cold spots. But they're not afraid! They're determined to find out what's lurking in the shadows.

As they go deeper into the house, Cat and Mouse discover a hidden secret. The house is haunted by a mischievous ghost named Boo. Boo loves to play tricks on people, but he's also lonely. He's been waiting for someone to come and play with him.

Cat and Mouse are the perfect playmates for Boo. They're not afraid of him, and they love to have fun. Together, they go on a wild adventure through the haunted house. They play hide-and-seek, have a tea party, and even dance with the ghosts.

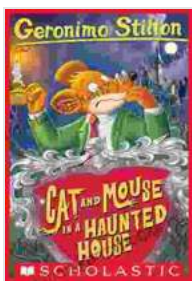

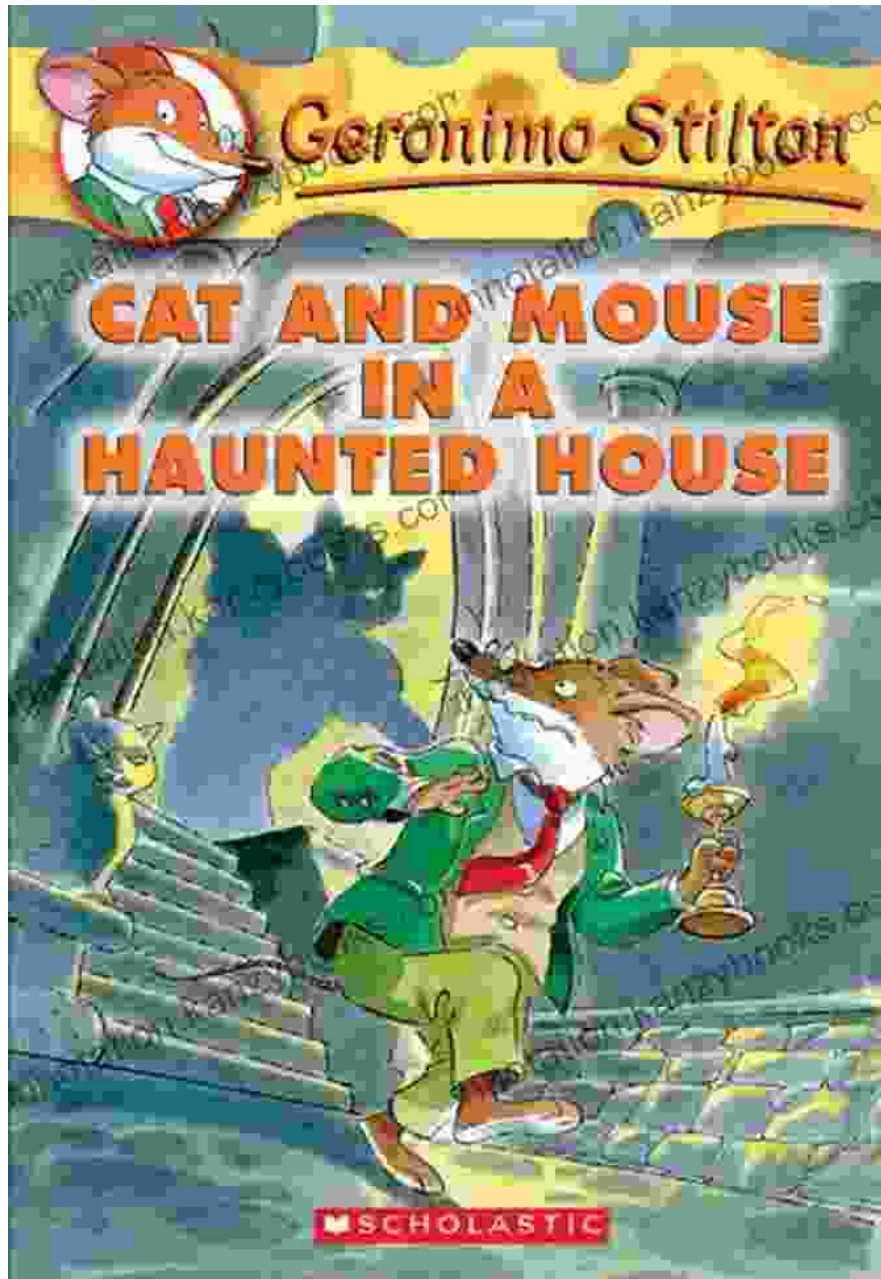

But not everything is fun and games in the haunted house. There's something else lurking in the shadows, something much more dangerous than Boo. Cat and Mouse must use all their courage and wit to escape from the haunted house and save themselves.
