

Escape to Paradise: Unveil Corsica's Enchanting Trails with "Short Treks on Corsica"

- Cap Corse: Sentier du Douanier • Mare e Monti • Mare a Mare Nord • Mare a Mare Sud • Mare e Monti Sud
- Fango canyon, Spilunca gorge, historic capital Corte

Aptly known as 'the scented isle', Corsica's towering forests, gushing cascades, beautiful isolated coves, aromatic maquis and spectacular river gorges make it a paradise for walkers – and that's without mentioning mountain landscapes and quiet villages nestled on hillsides of chestnut woods. Everything that Corsica has to offer can be enjoyed along these routes.

Five stunning treks along the coast and through the rugged mountainous interior are presented in detail, with helpful notes on where to sleep, what to eat, local history and curiosities, plus transport information. There are also opportunities for mixing and matching sections of these routes.

- treks range from 2 to 11 days, on coastal and mountainous terrain

- walkers' accommodation is open from April to October
- the 190km GR20 trail is covered by a separate Cicerone guide
