Synopsis

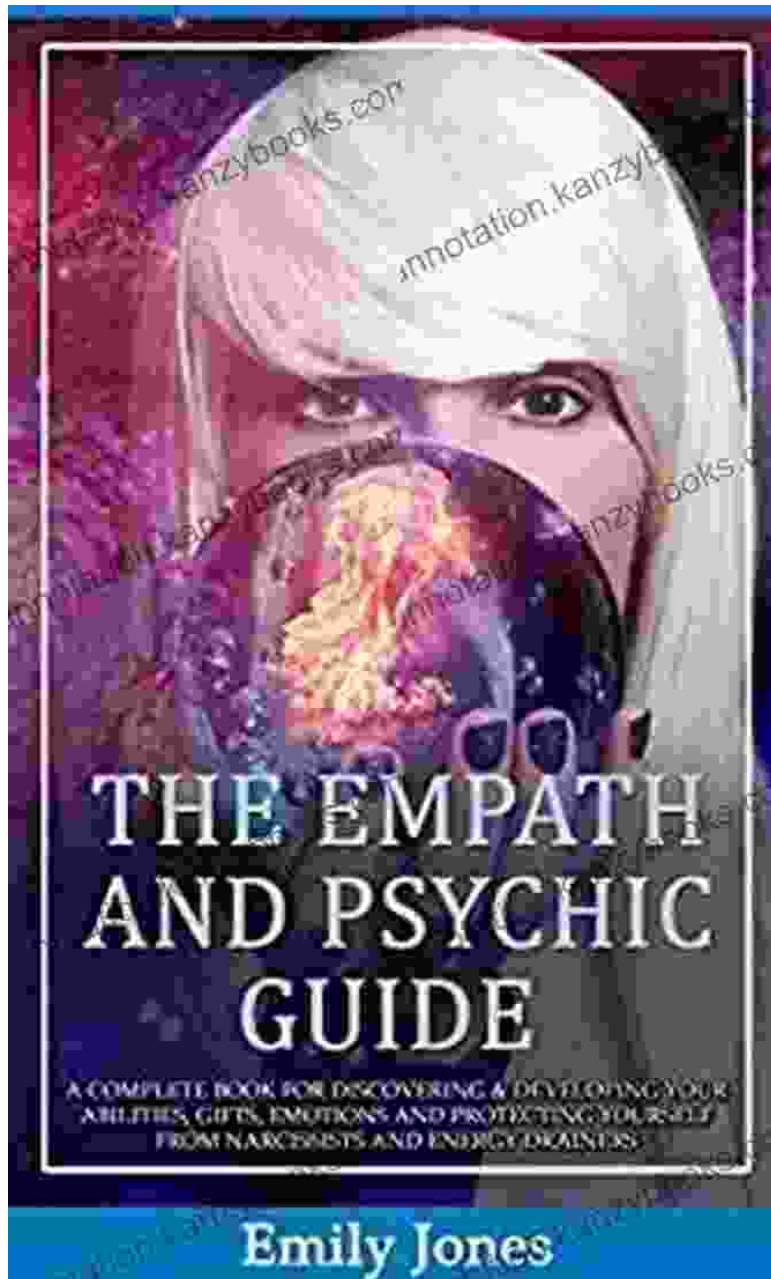

As Thanksgiving approaches, a dark presence threatens to cast a shadow over the beloved holiday. Enter the Psychic Superheroes of America, an extraordinary group of psychics who possess exceptional abilities.

Emily, the empath with an uncanny talent for sensing emotions, discovers a sinister plot to instill fear and discord among the American people. Together with her fellow superheroes - Jake, the telepath; Jessica, the precognitive; and Mark, the clairvoyant - Emily embarks on a perilous mission to uncover the truth.

Time is running out as the superheroes navigate treacherous obstacles and battle supernatural foes. With their ESP and psychic powers, they decipher cryptic visions, track down elusive suspects, and confront the malevolent force behind the plot.

But will their extraordinary abilities be enough to save Thanksgiving and restore harmony before it's too late?
