Alliteration is the repetition of the same consonant sound at the beginning of two or more words. It's a great way to help children develop their phonemic awareness, which is the ability to identify and manipulate individual sounds in words. Phonemic awareness is a key skill for early readers, and it's essential for developing reading fluency.

The Alliteration Series is a set of four books, each of which focuses on a different consonant sound. The books are:

- Buster's Big Bear

Each book is filled with fun and engaging stories that will help your child learn the target consonant sound. The stories are written in a simple and easy-to-read style, and they're illustrated with bright and colorful pictures.
