The Story

Once upon a time, there was a little girl named Goldilocks who lived in a forest with her mother and father. One day, Goldilocks was playing in the forest when she came across a small path. Curious, she followed the path and soon found herself in front of a cottage.

The cottage was made of gingerbread and had a bright blue door. Goldilocks knocked on the door and waited. When no one answered, she pushed the door open and stepped inside.

The cottage was empty, but the table was set with three bowls of porridge. Goldilocks was very hungry, so she sat down and tasted the porridge in each bowl. The first bowl was too hot, the second bowl was too cold, but the third bowl was just right.

After she finished the porridge, Goldilocks went into the living room and saw three chairs. She sat down in the first chair, but it was too hard. She sat down in the second chair, but it was too soft. She sat down in the third chair, and it was just right.

Goldilocks was so tired that she decided to take a nap. She went upstairs and found three beds. She lay down in the first bed, but it was too hard. She lay down in the second bed, but it was too soft. She lay down in the third bed, and it was just right.

Goldilocks fell fast asleep. Soon, the owners of the cottage came home. They were three bears—a big bear, a medium-sized bear, and a little bear.

The bears were surprised to find a little girl in their cottage. They went upstairs and found Goldilocks sleeping in their bed.

The bears were angry. They woke Goldilocks up and chased her out of the cottage.

Goldilocks ran and ran until she came to the edge of the forest. She looked back and saw the three bears chasing her. Goldilocks ran faster and faster until she came to her own house.

Goldilocks told her mother and father all about her adventure. They were very amused, and they all laughed together.
