

Sunday Suppers at Lucques: A Culinary Journey Through the Heart of Los Angeles

In the heart of Los Angeles, where the hustle and bustle of city life meets the relaxed pace of the Pacific Ocean, there is a restaurant called Lucques. For over two decades, Lucques has been a destination for diners seeking a taste of California cuisine at its finest. Chef and co-owner Suzanne Goin has been at the helm of Lucques since its inception, and her passion for food and entertaining is evident in every dish that leaves the kitchen.

One of the most popular traditions at Lucques is the Sunday supper. Every Sunday, Goin and her team create a special menu that showcases the best of seasonal ingredients. The dishes are always creative and flavorful, and they are served in a warm and inviting atmosphere. The Sunday supper has become so popular that Goin has decided to share her recipes with the world in a new cookbook called Sunday Suppers at Lucques. The ultimate California comfort food cookbook
