scripture, reinterpreted history, and fabricated prophecies to support his own distorted vision of reality.

"The world is a wicked place," he warned. "Only within our walls can you find salvation. Prepare yourselves for the day when we must leave this cursed land."

The Final Act

On November 18, 1978, in the isolated jungle settlement of Jonestown, Jones's twisted vision reached its tragic end. After receiving news of an impending government raid, he Free Downloaded his followers to drink cyanide-laced Flavor-Aid.

In a final sermon that lasted for hours, Jones exhorted his congregation to embrace death as a revolutionary act. He promised them a better life beyond the grave, free from the horrors of the outside world.

"This is the day of our liberation," he cried. "We shall transcend the mortal coil and join our ancestors in paradise."
